CONTINUATION SECTION:

PARTS I-IV INSTRUCTIONS. AR 623-3 outlines the administrative requirements necessary to complete these portions of the support form.

Some key requirements: The rater will --

- a. Provide a copy of his or her support form (or equivalent), along with the senior rater's support form (or equivalent), to the rated Soldier at the beginning of the rating period.
- b. Discuss the scope of the rated Soldier's duty description with him or her within 30 days after the beginning of the rating period. This counseling will include, as a minimum, the rated Soldier's duty description and the performance objectives to attain. The discussion will also include the relationship of the duty description and objectives with the organization's mission, problems, priorities, and similar matters.
- c. Counsel the rated Soldier.

- (1) If the rated Soldier is recently assigned to the organization, the rater may use the counseling to outline a duty description and performance objectives. This discussion gives the rated Soldier a guide for performance while learning new duties and responsibilities in the unit of assignment.
- (2) If the rater is recently assigned, this first counseling may be used to ask the rated Soldier for an opinion of the duty description and objectives. By doing this, the rater is given a quick assessment of the rated Soldier and the work situation. It will also help the rater develop the best duty description and performance objectives for the rated Soldier.

d. Raters of CPTs, LTs, CW2s, and WO1s will also conduct quarterly follow-up counseling sessions to discuss performance, update and/or revise developmental tasks, as required, and assess developmental progress. Summary or key comments will be recorded for inclusion when preparing final OERs.

Senior raters and reviewing officials will --

- (1) Ensure support forms (or equivalent) are provided to all rated Soldiers they senior rate at the beginning of and throughout the respective rating periods.
- (2) Use all reasonable means to become familiar with a rated Soldier's performance. When practical, use personal contact, records and reports, and the information provided on the rated Soldier's support form.

The rated officer plays a significant role in counseling sessions and the evaluation process throughout the rating period. In the event of geographical separation, correspondence and telephone conversations will be used as alternatives to face-to-face counseling followed by face-to-face discussions between the rated Soldier and the rater at the earliest opportunity.

PART V INSTRUCTIONS: ICW ADRP 6-22 and ADP 6-0 rated officer performance objectives will align with the attributes and competencies required for all officers. The overall definition of each attribute and competency is addressed in the base support form. Key points:

A. CHARACTER: Army Values, Empathy, Warriors Ethos/Service Ethos, and Discipline.

Army Values: Values are principles, standards, or qualities considered essential for successful leaders. Values are fundamental to help people discern right from wrong in any situation. The Army has seven values to develop in all Army individuals: loyalty, duty, respect, selfless service, honor, integrity, and personal courage. Empathy: The propensity to experience something from another person's point of view. The ability to identify with and enter into another person's feelings and emotions. The desire to care for and take care of Soldiers and others. Warrior Ethos/Service Ethos: The internal shared attitudes and beliefs that embody the spirit of the Army profession for Soldiers and Army Civilians alike. Discipline: Control of one's own behavior according to Army Values; mindset to obey and enforce good orderly practices in administrative, organizational, training, and operational duties.
